

LPSUK Data Retention Policy

1. Introduction

This Policy sets out the obligations of Leuva Padidar Samaj (S.N.V.) United Kingdom, a The Charity registered in United Kingdom under the Charity number 296222, whose registered office is at 49 Prebend Garden, London W6 0XT. ("The Charity") regarding retention of personal data collected, held, and processed by the Charity in accordance with EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR").

The GDPR defines "personal data" as any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (a "data subject"). An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier, or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural, or social identity of that natural person.

The GDPR also addresses "special category" personal data (also known as "sensitive" personal data). Such data includes, but is not necessarily limited to, data concerning the data subject's race, ethnicity, politics, religion, trade union membership, genetics, biometrics (if used for ID purposes), health, sex life, or sexual orientation.

Under the GDPR, personal data shall be kept in a form which permits the identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data is processed. In certain cases, personal data may be stored for longer periods where that data is to be processed for archiving purposes that are in the public interest, for scientific or historical research, or for statistical purposes (subject to the implementation of the appropriate technical and organisational measures required by the GDPR to protect that data).

In addition, the GDPR includes the right to erasure or "the right to be forgotten". Data subjects have the right to have their personal data erased (and to prevent the processing of that personal data) in the following circumstances:

- a) Where the personal data is no longer required for the purpose for which it was originally collected or processed (see above);
- b) When the data subject withdraws their consent;
- c) When the data subject objects to the processing of their personal data and the Charity has no overriding legitimate interest;
- d) When the personal data is processed unlawfully (i.e. in breach of the GDPR);
- e) When the personal data has to be erased to comply with a legal obligation; or
- f) Where the personal data is processed for the provision of information society services to a child.

This Policy sets out the type(s) of personal data held by the Charity to be able to operate under the guidelines of the Charity constitution and to enable to carried out the work of its objectives, the period(s) for which that personal data is to be retained, the criteria for establishing and reviewing such period(s), and when and how it is to be deleted or otherwise disposed of.

For further information on other aspects of data protection and compliance with the GDPR, please refer to the Charity's Data Protection Policy.

2. Aims and Objectives

- 2.1 The primary aim of this Policy is to set out limits for the retention of personal data and to ensure that those limits, as well as further data subject rights to erasure, are complied with. By extension, this Policy aims to ensure that the Charity complies fully with its obligations and the rights of data subjects under the GDPR.
- 2.2 In addition to safeguarding the rights of data subjects under the GDPR, by ensuring that excessive amounts of data are not retained by the Charity, this Policy also aims to improve the speed and efficiency of managing data.

3. Scope

- 3.1 This Policy applies to all personal data held by the Charity and by third-party data processors processing personal data on the Charity's behalf.
- 3.2 Personal data, as held by the Charity is stored in the following ways and in the following locations:

employees are held to the same conditions as those relevant volunteers, employees of the Charity arising out of the GDPR and the Charity's Data Protection Policy;

- j) Where any agent, contractor or other party working on behalf of the Charity handling personal data fails in their obligations under the GDPR and/or the Charity's Data Protection Policy, that party shall indemnify and hold harmless the Charity against any costs, liability, damages, loss, claims or proceedings
- k) which may arise out of that failure.

6. Data Disposal

Upon the expiry of the data retention periods set out below in Part 7 of this Policy, or when a data subject exercises their right to have their personal data erased, personal data shall be deleted, destroyed, or otherwise disposed of as follows:

- 6.1 Personal data stored electronically (including any and all backups thereof) shall be deleted securely;
- 6.2 Special category personal data stored electronically including any and all backups thereof shall be deleted securely.
- 6.3 Personal data stored in hardcopy form shall be shredded;
- 6.4 Special category personal data stored in hardcopy form shall be shredded.

7. Data Retention

- 7.1 As stated above, and as required by law, the Charity shall not retain any personal data for any longer than is necessary in light of the purpose(s) for which that data is collected, held, and processed.
- 7.2 Different types of personal data, used for different purposes, will necessarily be retained for different periods (and its retention periodically reviewed), as set out below.
- 7.3 When establishing and/or reviewing retention periods, the following shall be taken into account:
 - a) The objectives and requirements of the Charity;
 - b) The type of personal data in question;
 - c) The purpose(s) for which the data in question is collected, held, and processed;
 - d) The Charity's legal basis for collecting, holding, and processing that data;
 - e) The category or categories of data subject to whom the data relates;
- 7.4 If a precise retention period cannot be fixed for a particular type of data, criteria shall be established by which the retention of the data will be determined, thereby ensuring that the data in question, and the retention of that data, can be regularly reviewed against those criteria.
- 7.5 Notwithstanding the following defined retention periods, certain personal data may be deleted or otherwise disposed of prior to the expiry of its defined retention period where a decision is made within the Charity to do so (whether in response to a request by a data subject or otherwise).

- 7.6 In limited circumstances, it may also be necessary to retain personal data for longer periods where such retention is for archiving purposes that are in the public interest, for scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes. All such retention will be subject to the implementation of appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect the rights and freedoms of data subjects, as required by the GDPR.

8. Roles and Responsibilities

- 8.1 The Charity's Data Protection Officer is the Charity Secretary.
- 8.2 The Data Protection Officer shall be responsible for overseeing the implementation of this Policy and for monitoring compliance with this Policy, the The Charity's other Data Protection-related policies (including, but not limited to, its Data Protection Policy), and with the GDPR and other applicable data protection legislation.
- 8.3 The Data Protection Officer shall be directly responsible for ensuring compliance with the above data retention periods throughout The Charity. Any questions regarding this Policy, the retention of personal data, or any other aspect of GDPR compliance should be referred to the Data Protection Officer.

9. Implementation of Policy

This Policy shall be deemed effective as of 10th February 2020. No part of this Policy shall have retroactive effect and shall thus apply only to matters occurring on or after this date.
